

Steve Engel

Animal Tracks by Steve www.animaltracksbysteve.com

P.O.Box 4164 Portland, OR 97208-4164

Phone: 503-640-1123 Email: tracktiles@gmail.com

Education

1982 B.S. Natural History, Evergreen State College, WA

1984 Tom Brown Tracker School, Basic Course, NJ

Summary of Work Experience

1991 - 2004 Natural History Staff, Lindblad Expeditions, WA and NY

Expeditions to Alaska, Baja California, Columbia River, Svalbard, Antarctica

1995 - 2000 Naturalist/Guide, Full Circle Tours, S.E. Oregon and Alaska

1993 - 1997 Lead naturalist, Green City Data Project, Audubon Society of Portland, OR

1991 - 1995 Primary observer for HawkWatch International Goshute Mtns. Raptor Project

1987 - 1991 Education Director, Headlands Institute, Yosemite National Institutes, CA

1983 - 1987 Field Instructor, Headlands Institute, Yosemite National Institutes, CA

1983 - 1984 Backpacking Program Leader, National Wildlife Federation Earth Trek, NC

Animal Tracks by Steve™ 1997 - Present

2004: Nature Mapping Vancouver Water Resources Center & Environmental Information Cooperative

Presenter: Teacher training in field natural history and tracking

Nature Mapping West Valley Outdoor Learning Center, Spokane, WA

Presenter: Teacher training in field natural history and tracking

Environmental Information Cooperative Washington University, Vancouver, WA

Consultant/write: Lewis and Clark Expedition Education Kits

Cathedral School for Boys San Francisco, CA

Presenter: Animal Tracks Literacy Project Lesson I for 6th grade class

Hamlin School San Francisco, CA

Presenter: Animal Tracks Literacy Project Lesson I for 5th grade class

Clackamas Community College Oregon City, OR

Leader: Tracking field trip with Skills Development Students of Tiare Sheller

Rosemont Ridge Middle School/West Linn Outdoor School

Presenter: Evening program on Animal Tracking to audience of 200 6th graders

Siskyou Field Institute Ashland, OR

Instructor: three day basic class in Animal Tracking

Multnomah County Library Portland, OR

Presenter: Make Your Own Animal Track Tee Shirts program for the public

CascadiaWild! And Factor Health Foundation Joseph, OR

Team member/Leader, Scout Game for parents and children

Lindblad Expeditions Seattle, WA

Participant in 3 day workshop on Thematic Interpretation with Dr. Sam Ham, University of Idaho

Steve Engel Statement of Qualifications continued

- 2003: Glencoe Elementary School Portland, OR
Presenter: Tracks of the Lewis and Clark Expedition
International Society of Professional Trackers 2003 Symposium Bear Creek, PA
Vendor & Presenter: Animal Tracks Literacy Project Lesson I
South Slough National Estuarine Research Reserve Charleston, OR
Workshop leader: Identifying Animal Tracks and Tracks on Tee Shirts
Spokane Educators Workshop Spokane, WA
Leader: Day-long workshop on identifying and interpreting animal tracks
Wilderness Awareness School Duvall, WA
Participant in Tracker Training Series
- 2002: Lynx Tracking Project Cascadia Wild! Portland, OR
Adult volunteer trainer, Animal Tracks Literacy Project Lessons I and II
Multnomah County Library Portland, OR
Presenter: Make Your Own Animal Track Tee Shirts program for the public
Northwest Earth Institute Portland, OR
National Conference presenter: Introduction to Place
Teach The River Conference Fresno, CA
Presenter for Animal Tracks Literacy Project: Lessons I and II
Washington Department of Ecology
Instructor: Natural History of Pacific Northwest for Ameri-corp students
EarthWalk Northwest, Summer Gathering, Yakima, WA.
Workshop leader: Animal Tracking
- 2001: Environmental Educators Association of Oregon and Washington, Vancouver, WA
Conference presenter: Animal Tracks Literacy Project
Lynx Tracking Project Cascadia Wild! Portland, OR
Adult volunteer trainer: Animal Tracks Literacy Project Lessons I and II
Multnomah County Library Portland, OR
Presenter: Make Your Own Animal Track Tee Shirts programs for the public
Oregon Science Teachers Association
Presenter at State Conference
Track Stories in Cement Municipal Sidewalk Project Raymond, WA
Imprinted 33 track stories created by local students into five blocks of cement sidewalk downtown
Tracking Rare Forest Carnivores Bend, OR
Participant in two-day workshop led by Dr. James Halfpenny and Jon Young
Webster Open School Minneapolis, MN
Artist In Residence, Grades 4, 5 & 6, March and November

Steve Engel Statement of Qualifications continued, page 3

- 2000: Denali Park Resorts Interpretive Department Denali National Park, Alaska
Workshop leader in animal tracking and plaster casting for interpretive staff
Lynx Tracking Project Cascadia Wild! Portland, OR
Adult volunteer trainer: Animal Tracks Literacy Project Lessons I and II
International Society of Professional Trackers 2000 Symposium Hotchkiss, CO
Presenter and vendor
Northwest Earth Institute Portland, OR
National Conference presenter: Introduction to Place
Oregon Science Teachers Association Hillsboro, Newport and Portland, OR Presenter at State Conferences
- 1999: Environmental Educators Association of Oregon (E.E.A.O.)
Workshop leader in animal tracking and nature awareness,
Jackson Bottom Wetlands
Lynx Tracking and Winter Ecology Coyote's Path School, Loomis State Forest, WA
Participant in 2-day outdoor workshop led by Mark Skatrud and Chris Hollander
Northwest Earth Institute Portland, OR
National Conference presenter: Introduction to Place
National Aquatic and Marine Educators (NAME)
Presenter at Regional Conference
Washington Park Arboretum Portland, OR
Presenter in animal tracking and trail interpretive techniques to adult volunteer
- 1998: Bellevue Parks Department Bellevue, Washington
Workshop leader in animal tracking and plaster casting for the public
Friends of Tryon Creek State Park Portland, OR
Presenter in animal tracking and trail interpretive techniques for adult volunteers
National Association of Interpreters Anchorage, Alaska and Vancouver, WA
Presenter at International Conference 1998, Regional Conference 2000
Oregon Science Teachers Association
Presenter at State Conference
Wilderness Awareness School Art of Mentoring
Participant in weekend workshop with Jon Young
- 1997: Headlands Institute, Sausalito, CA
Presenter, Staff training in animal track patterns and sidewalk painting project